LAKELAND LEISURE ESTATES

Description

Curraghmore is a charming 60ft traditional narrowboat that offers timeless character, thoughtful design, and exceptional craftsmanship. Built in 2003 by the renowned Stuart & Hodges, she has been lovingly maintained and offers a comfortable and flexible layout suited to liveaboard life or leisurely cruising the inland waterways. With 2+2 berths, this boat is perfect for couples, solo adventurers, or small families looking for a floating retreat with all the comforts of home.

At the heart of Curraghmore is a well-appointed galley, perfectly suited for those who love to cook on board. The space combines functionality with a touch of luxury, featuring a sleek granite worktop, a round stainless-steel sink, and a Spin Flo Caprice 4-burner stove with oven and grill for hearty meals afloat. A Coolmatic 12v compressor fridge keeps provisions fresh, and a Nature Pure water filter ensures clean drinking water on the go. The Beko washing machine offers the convenience of onboard laundry, while tiled flooring and an extraction fan maintain a fresh, practical space that's easy to clean and use daily.

The lounge area is a warm and welcoming spot to relax, unwind, or entertain. It features two high-quality leather captain's chairs, ideal for curling up with a book or enjoying a peaceful view out of the side windows. A fold-down desk/table is neatly tucked into the shelving, perfect for working remotely or sharing a meal. A low TV shelf adds entertainment potential without crowding the space. With curtains throughout, the room transforms into a cosy, private nook, especially inviting on cooler evenings.

The cleverly designed dinette area is both practical and flexible, offering a transverse table with two cushioned bench seats that comfortably seat four. Ideal for dining or game nights, the table easily collapses into a guest double bed, creating additional sleeping space without compromising the layout. Under-seat storage makes excellent use of space, while curtains around the dinette can be drawn for guest privacy.

At the stern lies a peaceful master bedroom with a smart use of space and generous storage options. The cross double bed features a pull-out base and a folding single mattress, giving you a flexible setup whether hosting guests or enjoying a lazy morning. There are drawers under the bed, cupboards above, and a wardrobe with both top and mid-height hanging rails, offering more than enough room for clothes and essentials. It's a restful sanctuary to retreat to after a day on the water.

Thoughtfully laid out, the bathroom offers dual access for added privacy and convenience. It features a ceramic toilet, a quadrant shower cubicle with modern mixer controls, and a handbasin with storage underneath. The tiled floor adds a touch of refinement and is easy to maintain, while a mirrored medicine cabinet provides extra storage for toiletries. It's a clean, bright, and surprisingly spacious space, ideal for everyday use.

Lovingly cared for and clearly well looked after, Curraghmore is a beautifully presented boat that's ready to cruise or live aboard. Her traditional layout offers warmth, and plenty of storage without compromising style. Whether you're seeking a gentle retreat along the canal or a full-time waterside lifestyle, Curraghmore is an ideal companion.
