LAKELAND LEISURE ESTATES

Description

Step aboard the Duke of Lancaster, a stunning 60ft Cruiser Stern narrowboat that perfectly blends classic craftsmanship with modern-day comfort. Built in 1993, she has stood the test of time with grace and is now presented with tasteful upgrades and stylish touches throughout. Her reverse layout, spacious interior, and bright, airy feel make her a standout on the water—whether you're seeking a permanent floating home or an elegant escape for weekends and holidays.

From the first moment you step onto the wide cruiser stern, you'll feel a sense of openness and sociability. It's the ideal outdoor space to enjoy morning coffee, helm in comfort, or entertain friends on warm summer evenings. The cruiser stern leads directly into the interior, where a beautifully renovated galley kitchen awaits—designed to be both practical and visually striking. Featuring sleek slimline worktops, an inset sink with a contemporary mixer tap, and a brand-new washing machine, the galley offers everything you need for comfortable living, all with a clean, uncluttered aesthetic.

The kitchen flows seamlessly into the lounge, creating an expansive, open-plan living area flooded with natural light from generous windows. This inviting space is a true sanctuary—light and bright during the day, cosy and peaceful in the evening. There's ample room here to tailor the space to your taste, whether you want a snug sofa corner, a reading nook, or a dining area for two. The layout has been carefully considered to make the most of the boat's generous 60ft length while preserving a strong sense of home and comfort.

As you move forward, you'll find a well-designed bathroom, equipped with all the essentials, including a gas boiler that provides hot water on demand to both the kitchen and bathroom areas. Its compact but efficient layout ensures functionality without compromising on comfort.

At the bow, the bedroom is a peaceful retreat, offering a tranquil space to rest and unwind after a day's cruising. Clever storage solutions make full use of the space, and the soft flow of daylight adds a calming ambiance. Just beyond lies the well deck, a charming outdoor area perfect for enjoying canal-side views, morning birdsong, or a glass of wine under the stars.

Duke of Lancaster is a lovingly cared-for narrowboat with timeless appeal and a fresh, contemporary finish. Whether you're looking to set off on new adventures or settle into a peaceful life afloat, she offers everything you need—and more—with style, substance, and charm.
